EIRIK LIE

Executive Vice President, Kongsberg Gruppen ASA
President, Kongsberg Defence & Aerospace

Eirik Lie is Executive Vice President of Kongsberg Gruppen ASA (KONGSBERG) and President of Kongsberg Defence & Aerospace (KDA), a business unit of KONGSBERG. Mr. Lie is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Kongsberg Satellite Services (KSAT), a company jointly owned between KONGSBERG and Space Norway. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Patria, a defence and technology company located in Finland, where KONGSBERG owns 49.9% of the shares.

KDA is Norway’s leading supplier of defence and aerospace-related systems with more than 70% exports worldwide. The portfolio comprises products and systems for command and control, weapons guidance and surveillance, communications solutions, missiles, Space products and services, and advanced composites and engineering products for the aircraft and helicopter market.

Prior to his current positions, Mr. Lie was Executive Vice President for the Integrated Defence Systems division in KDA. In this role he was responsible for Air Defence systems, Integrated Naval Combat Systems, air- and land based C4ISR, and Ninox Remote Tower programs.

Since joining KONGSBERG in 1990, Mr. Lie held different positions of increasing responsibility, including software development, systems engineering and several projects and departmental management positions. He has also been head of the Kongsberg Defence Communication division located in Oslo. Mr. Lie was central in establishing the Raytheon/KONGSBERG NASAMS SL-AMRAAM Air Defence system which has been sold worldwide.

ABOUT KONGSBERG

KONGSBERG (OSE-ticker: KOG) is an international, knowledge-based group delivering high technology systems and solutions to clients with- in the oil and gas industry, merchant marine, defence and aerospace. KONGSBERG has 7,200 employees located in more than 27 countries and total revenues of NOK 16.0 billion in 2016.